F. CERTIFICATION (READ CAREFULLY)

By signing this statement, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to the funding guidelines and terms specified below:

1. To the best of my knowledge, the information in this application is true, correct, and complete.
2. It is my responsibility - not that of The CIRI Foundation (board or staff) or any other party (e.g. parent, spouse, academic advisor) – to obtain and submit all the necessary application materials on or before the deadline to receive consideration for any award.
3. I give The CIRI Foundation permission to access my previous scholarship and grant applications, and supporting documents on file with Cook Inlet Tribal Council, for the purpose of processing current and future applications with The CIRI Foundation.
4. This application does not obligate The CIRI Foundation to award an education scholarship or to pay any costs incurred in the submission of this application. All decisions made by TCF are final.
5. If approved for a scholarship or grant, I agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the award. If, for any reason, I am unable to use the award for which I am selected, the full amount or any portion thereof is to be refunded to The CIRI Foundation.
6. I understand that I am required to complete all courses and credits for which I am funded.
7. All applicant information is kept confidential in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Information will not be released to another party, including parents or family members, without having written consent of the applicant.
8. I give The CIRI Foundation permission to release, as appropriate, my comments, photo, name, address, email, and telephone number for employment or education referrals and CIRI, CITC or related publications.

CITC Scholarship Document Descriptions Tribal Higher Education Scholarship (THE)

- CIRI Documentation — CIRI shareholders do not need to provide any further documentation; TCF can verify your shareholder status. Direct lineal descendants of CIRI shareholders must provide documentation that shows you are a lineal descendant of a CIRI shareholder. Documents may be available from CIRI Shareholder Relations: (907) 263-5100, toll free (800) 764-2474, or via email at shareholderrecords@ciri.com. Only first time applicants need to submit.
Options:
 - A CIRI lineal descendant registration card (plan ahead for processing time)
 - Birth certificates and any name change documents that link you to a CIRI shareholder
 - A letter from CIRI Shareholder Relations that states you are a lineal descendent of a CIRI shareholder
- Cook Inlet Region tribe award/denial letter for tribal funding — Applicants who are enrolled in a Cook Inlet Region tribe (Chickaloon, Kenaitze, Knik, Ninilchik, Salamatof, or Tyonek) must apply for the tribe's scholarship program first. You will only be eligible for the CITC Scholarship if you are denied by the tribe you are enrolled in. You need to provide verification of the denial of the scholarship funding from your tribe in order to be eligible for CITC funding.
- Other funding sources — Applicants must provide notice of all other scholarships received and applied for during this application period. This can be done on line 30 (on page 3) of the application.
- Proof of Alaska Native/American Indian (AN/AI) Blood — This is your Certificate Degree of Indian Blood (CDIB or CIB). This is available from the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) office at <http://www.bia.gov/WhoWeAre/RegionalOffices/Alaska/>. Only first time applicants need to submit.
- Proof of Selective Service Registration — This is required for male applicants between the ages of 18-25. Available here: <https://www.sss.gov/regver/wfverification.aspx>
- Statement of Purpose — This is a 300-word short essay (like a letter to TCF) identifying your professional goals.
- Most current Official Transcripts noting cumulative GPA (you must have and maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 to be eligible for the Tribal Higher Education Scholarship) — Available from your school's Office of the Registrar. TCF will accept your unofficial transcripts in-person only if it is printed, witnessed, and signed by a TCF staff member. If college transcripts are not yet applicable, high school transcripts or GED documentation are required.

Applications must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. Alaska Time on the day of the deadline.
Applications will be considered in the order they were received – first completed, first awarded.

Submit your application and documents to TCF via mail, email, fax, or hand-deliver at:

The CIRI Foundation | 3600 San Jeronimo Drive, Suite 256, Anchorage, AK 99508 | Phone: (907) 793-3575
Toll-free: 1 (800) 764-3382 | Fax: (907) 793-3585 | tcf@thecirifoundation.org

- Acceptance letter noting degree and major or academic program — This is a letter from your school granting you admission and stating your declared major or program change documentation. This information may also be on your transcripts or printed from student portal.
- Current class schedule with credit load — Available from your school's Office of the Registrar or via your online student portal. Undergraduate students must show enrollment in (12+) credits to be considered full-time, or include an official document from the school verifying the credit load considered full-time at the institution. Full-time graduate students must show enrollment in (9+) credits, or include an official document from school, verifying the credit load considered full-time at the institution. Part-time students will be awarded funding based on pro-rated calculation of their enrolled credits. Students MUST complete all courses outlined.
- Tuition Statement/ Education Cost Statement — Available from your school via your online student portal or your school's financial aid office. This may also be called Financial Term Details, Semester Budget, Financial Need Sheet, Cost Information Sheet, or Statement of Student Account. At a minimum, your tuition statement must show the actual cost of your academic program for the term (tuition, fees, required books, on-campus room and board); this may not be an estimate.
- Reference letter from a non-family member — Letter recommending you as a good candidate for college, with the skills and desire to complete your degree program and college goals. Letter must contain date, signature, and contact information from referrer. This can be from a teacher, counselor, supervisor or any non-relative who can speak to your academic potential. For your reference, see the sample letter below.

STUDENT INFORMATION RELEASE AND ATTESTATION FORM

Dear Student,

Alyeska Pipeline Service Company's (APSC) Alaska Native Program has provided scholarship and/or internship funding to the following Awarded Organization: Cook Inlet Tribal Council. This organization has been selected to distribute funding for training and educational opportunities strategically focused in Trans Alaska Pipeline System and oil industry professions.

The Awarded Organization will administer the program funding and monitor your progress during the period in which the scholarship or internship funds are received. This release form will enable the Awarded Organization to provide information to APSC regarding your progress or other information as requested, such as a current resume with contact information that may be used for purposes of employment or other recruitment efforts.

A condition of receipt of APSC funding requires that you complete this Student Information Release and Attestation Form and submit it along with a current resume, and any other requested documentation, to the Awarded Organization named above.

STUDENT ATTESTATION

I, Student Name: consent that the Awarded Organization named above may release information to APSC regarding my progress as a student, now and beyond the period of my scholarship award. This information may include, but is not limited to: official grade transcripts, degree/certification program curriculum and completion dates, personal statements of career goals, and resume.

I understand that if my cumulative GPA falls below 2.5, I will no longer be eligible for APSC program funding.

I understand that I can only receive a maximum of $7,500 of APSC program funding per academic year, which may include scholarship or internship funding received from multiple organizations distributing APSC funds, including the Awarded Organization named above.

I understand that release of this information and attestation is a condition for receipt of scholarship or internship funds. I acknowledge that failure to abide by these requirements will jeopardize potential future APSC funding.
